

SUSTAINABILITY REPORTING (CSRD)

INTRODUCTORY COURSE

1 DAY

Virtual Classroom

Face-to-Face

- Max 12 people
- Level: fundamental

Price :

Local ID:

Prerequisite :

None

- Operational
- Engineering
- Environmental QEHS/SHE/QHSE
- Energy and/or sustainability managers

THE +

- Group activities to practice
- Workbook
- Dynamic course delivery with lot of participant exchange and discussions

SUSTAINABILITY

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The aim of this training is to provide attendees the basic information and fundamentals about reporting of company's sustainability performance

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand the basics of sustainability reporting, the benefits and why you need to be ready to do it.
- General principles of Preparing the report and planning for stakeholder engagement.
- About the EU's CSRD. How your company will be impacted by these new reporting requirements.
- Some examples of E, S & G ESRS: How to search and find information you may need to create your report.

PROGRAMME

1 - Understand the basics of sustainability reporting and why you need to be ready to do it

- Explain what sustainability and sustainable development means.
- Understand some of the history of sustainability reporting, the different frameworks and standards, and the benefits of reporting.
- Identify some of the main sustainability issues / topics / risks for companies in terms of E, S and G dimensions.
- Understand the common reporting principles of the frameworks and standards.

2 – Basic principles about Preparing the Report and Planning for Stakeholder Engagement

- Feel confidence that you understand the reporting process.
- Define your stakeholders and channels with which you can engage with them.
- Understand the process to determine your material topics.
- Understand link between topics and KPIs.
- Fundamental about how to disclose information in a report and of the value of third party assurance.

3 - The CSRD, become aware of how your company will be impacted by sustainability reporting requirements

- Understand CSRD's main characteristics.
- Explain how the cross-cutting reporting standards work at a high level.
- Explain the concept of double materiality.
- Understand the basics for preparing and presenting sustainability information.

4 - E, S, G ESRS: what information do you need to create your report?

- First approach about the use and structure of topic specific agnostic standards.
- First approach about disclosure requirement content to report on E, S and G topics from these standards.

